DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. Independent claim 6 requires that the disc has "slits". No such slits are described in the original application as filed.

3. Claim 5 is further rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement for the following additional reason. The limitation "deviating from the disc about 40 to 50 degrees from said axial axis" is new matter. Instead, as illustrated in Fig. 3, a radius of the disc passing through the point where the blade intersects the circumference of the disc, forms an angle of 40 to 50 degrees with the blade. In contrast to claim 5, the planes of all the blades are parallel to the axis of the disc and shaft.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rose (US 1,100,491). Regarding independent claim 6, Rose ('491) discloses a stirrer comprising a circular disc (25,28) having an upper and lower surface, a central bore in an axial direction, and plurality of peripheral angle blade-receiving slits (see page 1, lines 85-94); a shank (22) extending through said central bore and attached to said circular disc; a plurality of blades (26) fixedly disposed within a corresponding blade receiving slit and configured and dimensioned to extend beyond said upper and lower circular disc surfaces in said axial direction, as well as extending outwardly in said peripheral direction away from said disc (see Fig. 4). The device of Rose ('491) would be capable of being used in the manner discussed in the claim. Regarding claim 4, each of the plurality of blades has a flat rectangular shape (see Fig. 4). Regarding claim 5, each of said plurality of blades is integrally formed with said circular disc, each of said plurality of blades is inserted in an inclined way deviating from the disc 40 to 50 degrees from said axial axis in a counted clockwise direction relative to the shank (see Fig. 2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rose (US 1,100,491) in view of Bakker (US 5,791,780). The stirrer of Rose ('491), discussed above, is not disclosed as being made of stainless steel. Bakker ('780) teaches making a stirrer of stainless steel (see col. 3, lines 63). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have made the stirrer of stainless steel to obtain the corrosion preventing benefit explained in col. 3, lines 62-64 of Bakker ('780).

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
